

Our hosts at Moulin de la Rogue -- Baron Guy Falon and Gaby Janney

Colorful Linens and Provençal Tablecloths abound at the local Marchés.

A Noves kitty, begging Robin to take her home on the next trip.

just another gorgeous archway

A side street in Avignon, our closest city. History, shopping and fine dining.

PROVENCE FALL, 2010

Two weeks
of painting, sight-seeing,
and living the French life
with artists Vera Dickerson and Robin Poteet

Depart Sept. 24 return Oct. 9, 2010

INCLUDES:

- 14 nights lodging at the estate, Moulin de la Roque in Noves, France
- 6 day trips via bus to some of Provence's most beautiful villages for painting and sight-seeing
- 5 dinners prepared by an exceptional local chef
- 14 breakfasts
- 2 special luncheons on days out
- Vera and Robin will offer morning demos and instruction 8 days in watercolor, acrylic and/or pen/ink sketching.

Rates per person, double occupancy:

$2350 for returning 2009 Travelers

$2400 Studio School Students

$2500 General Public

Add an additional $700 for a single room. Prices do not include airfare.

Olives, olives and more olives. Choose your favorite varieties when we visit the local outdoor markets.

Yet another beautiful hilltop village - this one, Gordes.

One of the FIVE bakery shops in Noves. All bake fresh twice a day. YUMMM!!

Each house on the estate is spacious and beautifully furnished, including modern kitchens and baths.

The French take great pride in their exceptionally fresh bread and we took full advantage at every meal!

Cassis is a magical Mediterranean town with a colorful harbor and an abundance of shops and cafes.